

Subject: Empower Your Child to Celebrate Their Heroes – Join the International Letter-Writing Competition!

Dear Parents,
YOUR CHILD HAS A VOICE—LET THEM USE IT TO INSPIRE!

We are excited to invite your child to participate in the International Letter-Writing Competition 2025, a global platform designed to help young minds express their thoughts, emotions, and gratitude through the timeless art of letter writing.

Theme: A Letter to the Hero in My Life

Ages: 7–18 years

In this heartfelt competition, children and youth are encouraged to write to the heroes who have touched their lives—whether through everyday kindness, extraordinary courage, or inspiring leadership. Their hero might be a parent, teacher, healthcare worker, community leader, or even a global role model.

This theme invites participants to reflect on the values of compassion, resilience, and selflessness. By putting their appreciation into words, children not only honor their heroes but also learn to recognize the power of positive action in the world around them.
