

Subject: Invite Your Students to Participate in the International Letter-Writing Competition

Dear Principal,

We are delighted to invite your esteemed school to participate in the International Letter-Writing Competition, an exciting global initiative that empowers students to express their perspectives on pressing global issues through the timeless art of letter writing.

In this heartfelt competition, children and youth are encouraged to write to the heroes who have touched their lives—whether through everyday kindness, extraordinary courage, or inspiring leadership. Their hero might be a parent, teacher, healthcare worker, community leader, or even a global role model.

Theme: A Letter to the Hero in My Life

How Schools Can Participate

1. Compile all student entries and email the letters to us.
2. Pay the entry fees for all students through a single payment link/bank transfer.

We strongly encourage your students to take part in this meaningful initiative. This theme invites participants to reflect on the values of compassion, resilience, and selflessness. By putting their appreciation into words, children not only honor their heroes but also learn to recognize the power of positive action in the world around them.

Let us join hands to nurture the leaders of tomorrow by encouraging their participation in this enriching experience. For any queries, please feel free to contact us
